DESK SHARING BAGS

Modern working environments offer a wide variety of workspace concepts. Instead of assigning each employee a fixed desk, many companies now use desk sharing, meaning that workspaces are shared. Such flexible working requires new ways of organising - after all, you can no longer simply store your work materials in your own personal drawer unit. Desk Sharing Bags are the ideal companion for everyday office life: they offer plenty of space for laptops, documents and other items, are comfortable to carry and can be placed stably and securely under the desk, with or without contents.

DESK SHARING BAG WORKSPACE

When your day-to-day business life is determined by new work and remote work, you find yourself commuting between your desk, meeting rooms and home office, or you want to enjoy the flexibility of desk-sharing, then this bag is an absolute must-have.

Pack your laptop, work documents, files, smartphone, charger, mains adapter, pens, keyboard and much more besides in this robust, dirt-repellent desk organiser. It's the easiest way to keep all important items on hand. Further plus points are the intelligent inner division with a variety of insert pockets, the magnetic cover flap that protects the contents from unauthorised access and the removable padded shoulder strap. An additional outer pocket is ideal for storing your phone, keys, chip card or transponder.

The SIGEL workspace bag is easy to use, absolutely functional and convenient to transport with its two handles. What's more, it fits into any standard-size locker.

Its special feature is that it can also be used as a compact workspace, somewhere to work without distractions when space is tight. This feature is ideal for co-working spaces, open-plan offices, or, for example, when travelling by train. Two magnetic snap fasteners allow the bag to be opened up, converting it into a mobile workspace. When folded down, the side panel serves as a desk pad, while the stable, sturdy body of the bag functions as a privacy screen.

BAG ACCESSORIES

With the new bag accessories, desk sharing becomes even more comfortable and personalised. Whether laptop and tablet sleeves, cases, small bags, or writing pads – each accessory has been specifically designed for use with the SIGEL Desk Sharing Bags. The thoughtful designs and high quality materials not only ensure optimal protection and organisation, but also contribute to a professional appearance in modern work environments.

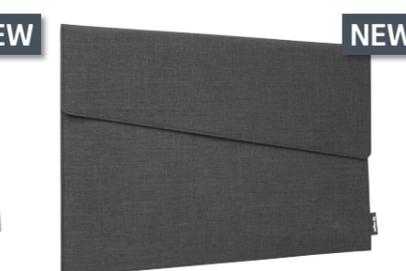

LAPTOP SLEEVES

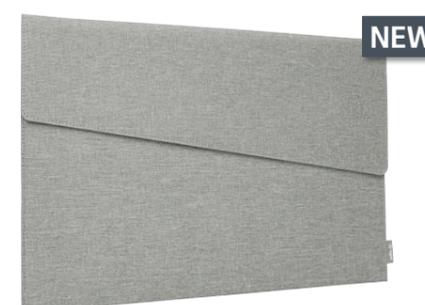

The laptop sleeve is a protective casing for your device, with a soft felt inner lining to protect it from dirt, scratches and general wear. The outside of the bag is made of recycled PET, water-repellent and easy to clean. If you don't want to take the entire desk-sharing bag into a meeting, just tuck the laptop sleeve under your arm. With a practical magnetic fastener and additional insert pocket on the outside for your most important documents. It goes without saying that the sleeve can also be used as a document folder. The flat protective sleeve fits perfectly into the SIGEL desk-sharing bags, but is also a must-have for any other bag you use throughout the working day.

LAPTOP CASES WITH STAND FUNCTION

SIMPLY SET UP AND GET STARTED:

At your desk in the office or home office, in the meeting room, on the train or wherever you want to work remotely.

If you are looking for high quality and long lasting storage for your laptop, you will love the new SIGEL laptop cases. The laptop case has a durable PU cover to protect your device from dirt and general wear. At the same time, it can be used as a laptop stand, without the need to remove the laptop from the case.

An integrated fibreglass plate reinforces the case, also serving as a heat shield for the laptop. The lower keyboard part is clamped between two plastic corners; the screen is fixed between two clamp strips on the side. The two clamping elements can be adjusted to the size of your laptop, which means the case is compatible with different laptop brands. The top flap of the case can be adjusted steplessly using the attached laptop screen. Your device can remain permanently stored in the case and can be used directly for working.

After use, the case closes securely by means of a lid with a concealed magnetic fastener. A flat nylon mesh insert pocket with a zip on the outside provides additional space for your most important documents and small items such as a mouse, pens, glasses, and more.

BACK PAIN IS A THING OF THE PAST –

WELCOME TO THE WORLD OF ERGONOMIC WORKING!

You spend many hours at your workspace every day – so why make compromises?

Ergonomic working is more than just a trend. It is a crucial step towards greater well being, productivity and overall quality of life.

With an ergonomically designed workspace, you can finally combat back and neck pain. The new SIGEL Laptop Case enables ergonomic working thanks to its magnetic stand mechanism and can help improve your posture.

Incorrect sitting

Proper sitting

6 TIPS FOR ERGONOMIC WORKING:

Pay attention to a correct and comfortable sitting posture:

- Place your feet flat on the floor
- Your knees and hips should form an angle of about 90°
- Sit upright and extend your upper body upwards rather than sinking into the chair

Take regular breaks and move around:

- Change your position regularly or stand up from time to time and take a few steps
- Use height adjustable desks whenever possible
- Use your breaks consciously – mental breaks also help your body and mind

BAG ORGANISERS

This classy, practical set of two zip-up bags of different sizes is an essential addition to any desk-sharing bag.

Made of recycled PET, the outer surface is water-repellent, robust and easy to clean, while the soft felt inner lining protects the contents. Perfect for storing pens, mouse, charger, mains adapter, but also make-up and a glasses case. Both bags fit perfectly inside the SIGEL desk-sharing bags, but are also must-haves for any other bag you use throughout the working day. DESK PAD ROLLABLE

Roll it out and get down to work: This beautifully designed SIGEL desk pad is elegant and eye-catching, adding a decorative touch to any desk and blends perfectly into the range of the Desk Sharing Bags. Made of recycled PET, it provides a pleasant writing surface for paper, as well as being ideal for all types of mouse.

Practical: its extra-wide format means no additional mouse pad is required. The sturdy desk pad lies completely flat, remains securely in place thanks to the non-slip nubs on the felt reverse side, and the corners do not crease. The pad can be rolled up, making it ideal for on the move (incl. Velcro fastener).
